Now Playing at Daly City Theatre

ROMANTIC INTEREST in the Daly City theatre's new hit, "The Wagons Roll At Night," is sustained by Joan Leslie and Eddie Albert.

"The Wagons Roll At Night" Now At D. C. Theatre

His is reserved exclusively for his kid sister, played by Joan Leslie, for whom he maintains a country home. One jump ahead of the sheriff, the carnival rolls into Hentyville—and trouble. The lion tamer gets drunk, and lets one of the lions escape. The beast roams into a local grocery store, and the grocery clerk, Eddie Albert, corners him with a pitchfork. Even hard-boiled Bogart is impressed by this, and in order to jack up box-office receipts, he invites Albert to make guest appearances with the carnival that week. He is a sensational success, and thrilled with the new, strange life. Albert moves on with the show. Eventually the drunken lion tamer is fired, and Albert gets the job. The pseudo gypsy fortune teller, played by Sylvia Sidney, teaches him the ropes of carnival life.

The old lion tamer comes back one night while Bogart is away and tries to start trouble. He picks a fight with Eddie and while they are fighting one of the lions gets out and mangles the old man. Albert, too, has been hurt, and to avoid trouble should the old man die, Sylvia drives him up to the farm although she knows that Bogart has expressly forbidden any of the carnival troupe to go there.

At the farm, Albert recovers rapidly, and he and Joan fall in love. They have an idyllic week, until Bogart learns what is going on, comes up and takes Albert back to the carnival. Furious because his sister seems smitten with the boy, Bogart plans to end the romance once and for all. The unique revenge which he plans, and its unexpected results bring the dramatic story to a thrilling climax.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Rookies on Parade," with Bob Crosby and Ruth Terry.

IF "THEY" SAY YOU'RE GOOD, YOU ARE GOOD!

You've got to be good to win approval by an 80 per cent vote of a group of 400 descriminating housewives. Refering to laundry service, you've not only got to return clothes spotless, sweet smelling, and neatly ironed; but it is imperative that service be prompt, and economical, and there must be no proverbial "lost sock."

New Process Laundry has recently passed a most thorough and exacting test made by "The Housewives' Protective League" and has been retained among participating sponsors of that radio program.

Galen Drake, "The Housewives' Protective League's" unphotographed man-of-mystery is broadcasting the League's program three times daily over Station KFRC from 6:30 to 7 a. m., 12:15 to 12:45 p. m. and 3:30 to 4 p. m.

New Process Laundry is the first San Francisco firm of its kind to be permitted a sponsoring role for "The Housewives' Protective League."

The success of the League programs depends partly on the simple, unaffected style of the broadcasters, chiefly, perhaps on the fact that they make good use of interesting material. Too, there is conviction of sincerity in the requirement that 80 per cent of the testing housewives pass on a product before it is retained among participating sponsors of the program. And besides, such products as liquor, tobacco, credit, medicines and cosmetics are barred from sponsorship.

Geniuses Were Dull

Most of the world's geniuses were not bright children, but were queer, dull, or shy, according to Dr. George Sarton of Carnegie Institution of Washington, recognized as the leading historian of science.

Testing Tires

A machine has been invented to test the durability of automobile tires by subjecting samples of their material to twice the number of impacts to which the tires would be subjected in use.

Pear and Cheese Salad

Broadcast by Mary Lee Taylor, July 31, 1941

8 pear halves, fresh or canned (No. 2½ can)
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
2½ cups grated American cheese (½ lb.)
⅔ cup Pet Milk
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons salad oil
3 tablespoons vinegar

Drain pears. Save juice to use in sauces or beverages. Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Let stand while preparing the following mixture: Mix together cheese, milk, salt and pepper. Cook over boiling water, stirring until cheese is melted and mixture is smooth. Remove from heat and stir in salad oil. Add vinegar slowly. Then stir in gelatin mixture gradually. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Rub with salad oil a mold holding about 6 cups. Stand pear halves upright around edge of oiled mold. Fill prepared mold with thickened cheese mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold and serve on lettuce. Serves 6.
